

TAHOSA LODGE

ORDER OF THE ARROW

WHAT TO BRING: Here is the list of what you will need for the weekend. There will be some hiking involved, so packing these items in a backpack is suggested. Arrive at camp Friday evening in your work clothes and a warm jacket with the following items:

- Completed Health Form, Colorado Addendum, Over the Counter Med Form with parent signatures (for those under 18 years old) and a copy of health insurance card
- Work Clothes (wear these to the event and be prepared to have them stained, painted on, etc.)
- Clothes appropriate for the weather (both day and night) Be Prepared – It is Colorado and we have experienced all 4 seasons in a weekend!
- Tent (for Saturday night) and a second ground cloth – tarp so you can set up your tent Friday night (if you want to share a tent with a friend that is fine)
- Complete Class A uniform (MB Sash not necessary) can be left hanging in your tent. It will be worn for Saturday dinner and evening activities.
- Optional: money/credit or debit cards for lodge trading post purchases
- Personal grooming items (toothbrush, towel, soap, etc.)
- Daypack for use on Saturday – can be left in tent Friday evening
- Backpack – with gear loaded
- Ground Cloth – tarp (at least 7' x 9')
- Canteen/Water bottle
- 10 essentials
- Small notepad and pen
- Sleeping bag (appropriate for weather)
- Pad (self-inflating or closed cell foam)
- Work Gloves (leather recommended)
- Flashlight or headlight
- Daypack for use on Saturday

WHAT NOT TO BRING: electronic games, radios, watches, speakers, etc. We know you will have a cell phone – please be respectful and keep it off in your backpack – no music and headphone use.

MONEY: The Tahosa Lodge trading post will be open on Saturday night if you are interested in purchasing any lodge items (patches, shirts, hats, etc.) Credit and Debit cards are also accepted.
